All Souls Intentions

This year we will be doing an All Souls Novena, consisting of nine Masses of prayers praying for the souls of the departed. Envelopes are in the pews, and we ask that these envelopes be turned in by Sunday, October 29th. These envelopes will be placed on the altar during each of the following Masses so the faithful can pray for the souls of the departed:

October 31st - 6:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m., and 6:00 p.m.

November 1st - 6:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m., 12:10 p.m.

November 2nd - 6:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m., 6:00 p.m.

Gospel Meditation

“My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?” Today’s gospel parable is unsettling in several ways. The various images of rejection, mistreatment, and violence paint an unpleasant picture. Guests refuse to come to a feast, servants are killed, troops are dispatched. The King continues to try to fill his dinner hall, and then when someone finally does show up, the King throws him out for wearing the wrong clothes. What is going on here?

The message would have been a poignant one for Jesus’ Jewish listeners. As the chosen people, they were the first to receive the “invitation” to share in the kingdom of God. But the chief priests and elders were uninterested in accepting Jesus and His authority; thus they didn’t show up for the feast. But what about those who did come?

Something is expected of them as well. Donning a “wedding garment” is like being properly prepared to enter God’s kingdom. Just showing up isn’t enough.

Here it’s important to pay attention to the details. The King first calls his poorly dressed guest “friend.” The approach begins with mercy and kindness. But the man gives no defense for himself, and displays no desire to change. It’s as if he doesn’t really care to be there at all. The question this raises for us is whether or not we are “dressed” appropriately. We may hang around the banquet hall—going to church, professing to be Christian—but are we sincere guests of the King of kings? Do we truly accept Christ’s teachings and live by them, or are we just showing up? The splendors of the invitation Christ gives us should not be taken for granted. We are called to share in a royal feast. May we all be grateful guests!

From now until November 5th, this 40 Days for Life campaign is taking place in 24 countries around the world. Abortion is the leading cause of death in the world with an estimated 56 million happening every year. The crisis is global...and so is the solution. Prayer. Based on reports from around the world, 23 lives (that we know of) were saved from abortion during the first 5 days of the fall campaign of 40 Days for Life. In the 20 previous campaigns 13,305 lives have been saved from abortion!

Archbishop Aquila of Denver will join us in prayer at the Boulder Abortion Clinic, 1130 Alpine Avenue on October 20th at 10:30 a.m. with a Mass following at St. Thomas Aquinas, 898 14th Street, at 12:15 p.m. Please join him and others from around the area in silent prayer at a clinic that still practices late term abortions. Let us peacefully pray for the moms, the babies, and especially for the clinic workers that they will all select life. This is a timely opportunity to publicly pray as our government looks to approve an end to the most violent practices of abortion.

From LifeNews.com: The House of Representatives just approved a pro-life bill that bans abortions from after 20-weeks of pregnancy up to the day of birth. The vote in the house for the Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection Act was a 237-189 vote. “Overwhelming majorities of Americans—some 60-64% according to pollsters—support legal protection for pain-capable unborn children,” said pro-life Congressman Chris Smith.

Join us for Holy Hour in our chapel as we continue to pray for the end of abortion. We will meet each Wednesday through November 1st from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m

If you are new to 40 Days For Life, please visit <http://40daysforlife.com>. You may also contact Diane Woods at woodstaxes@aol.com, or 303-514-0639. If you are interested in carpooling to Boulder for our prayer vigils, please contact Amy Sammoury at 303-682-8824.

RCIA News - You're Invited!

RCIA is in the Inquiry phase of the process. The inquirers have so many outstanding questions. They are a group of enthusiastic, passionate individuals eager to explore and discover what it means to be Catholic. As we progress toward the First Rite at the beginning of Advent, we will need sponsors. This is the time for greater involvement from the body of the Church.

What is the role of a sponsor? A sponsor is a practicing Catholic who is willing to accompany the person on his/her faith journey. Sponsors are not expected to know every aspect of the Church's teaching, but rather to serve as a guide, an example of daily Catholic living bearing witness to the faith. In the sharing of faith, sponsors will find an increase of their own faith. It is truly a blessing for you!

Do you feel called to serve? If you feel a prompting of the spirit, or if you have any questions, please give me a call at 303-776-0737, ext. 140. We will need 17 sponsors! How blessed are we!

Why Should You Join Choir?

Singing in a choir is a perfect case of the whole being greater than the sum of its parts. It's about enjoying the gift of our voices and sharing them with others. When we lift our voices in song at Mass, we express the language of our hearts. Studies show that singing is important to our mental, physical, and social well-being. Please consider joining one of our St. John's choirs. Men's voices are an especially welcome addition! E-mail Maggie Howard today at maggieh@johnthebaptist.org.

"As long as I'm singing, it's as if I'm inhabiting another reality. I become temporarily suspended in a world where everything bad is bearable, and everything good feels possible."

Stacy Horn

Live the Liturgy

Pope Francis constantly reminds us of the wideness of God's mercy and its unconditional character. God is always patiently loving his children and opening the doors to His heart. We must, however, freely choose to accept God's invitation and join in the feast of His love. We desire many things and we have restless hearts. We often attempt to quench our desire with things that are short-lived and shallow. All of us long to be satisfied and at peace. How do we announce to the world, in ways that are convincing and without judgment, that it is really God whom we seek?

The 15 Promises of the Rosary

The Holy Rosary is an enormous source of grace and spiritual protection, one of the most powerful sacramentals of the Catholic Church. Sister Lucia dos Santos, one of the children to whom Our Lady appeared at Fatima, once said, "There is no problem, no matter how difficult it is, whether temporal or above all spiritual, in the personal life of each one of us, of our families ... that cannot be solved by the rosary. There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary."

Our Lady revealed the following promises to St. Dominic (the saint to whom the rosary was first given in the 12th century) and later to Blessed Alan de la Roche (who reignited devotion to the rosary in the 15th century).

- 1) To all those who shall recite my Rosary devoutly, I promise my special protection and very great graces.
- 2) Those who shall persevere in the recitation of my Rosary shall receive some signal grace.
- 3) The Rosary shall be a very powerful armor against hell; it will destroy vice, deliver from sin, and dispel heresy.
- 4) The Rosary will make virtue and good works flourish, and will obtain for souls the most abundant divine mercies; it will substitute in hearts love of God for love of the world, and will lift them to the desire of heavenly and eternal things. How many souls shall sanctify themselves by this means!
- 5) Those who trust themselves to me through the Rosary, shall not perish.
- 6) Those who shall recite my Rosary devoutly, meditating on its mysteries, shall not be overwhelmed by misfortune. The sinner shall be converted; the just shall grow in grace and become worthy of eternal life.
- 7) Those truly devoted to my Rosary shall not die without the Sacraments of the Church.
- 8) Those who recite my Rosary shall find during their life and at their death the light of God, the fullness of His graces, and shall share in the merits of the blessed.
- 9) I shall deliver very promptly from purgatory the souls devoted to my Rosary.
- 10) The true children of my Rosary shall enjoy great glory in heaven.
- 11) What you ask through my Rosary, you shall obtain.
- 12) Those who propagate my Rosary shall be aided by me in all their necessities.
- 13) I have obtained from my Son that all the members of the Rosary Confraternity shall have for their brethren the saints of heaven during their life and at the hour of death.
- 14) Those who recite my Rosary faithfully are all my beloved children, the brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ.
- 15) Devotion to my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Watch the latest from the acclaimed Bible Study series. Towards the end of his life, under arrest and awaiting trial in Rome, Saint Paul writes a short but powerful letter to the Philippians.

Marked by the cinematic artistry of Augustine Institute Studios, Tim Gray uses insight and practical guidance using the lectio divina disciplines to explore the power of life in Christ, the key to Christian friendship, joy amidst suffering, and the partnership to which we are called in sharing the gospel.

Become a Member of SJB's Blue Army

Our Lady appeared six times at Fatima. Each time she requested that we say the rosary every day to obtain graces of peace and understanding. Devotion to the Blessed Mother through the rosary enables the truth of salvation to nourish our souls. Mediating deeply on each of the twenty rosary mysteries helps us to grow in faith and hope, draws us nearer to God, and opens our hearts so that He can direct our lives and mold us to His purpose.

We need continual guidance, comfort, and support of God's hand as we struggle to cope with the uncertainties in our own lives, and strive to relieve the suffering of those less fortunate than ourselves. The Blue Army is a response to the requests of Our Lady of Fatima; to pray the rosary daily, to offer up sacrifices of our daily duty, and to keep the Five First Saturday Devotions. World-wide Blue Army prayer cells are established to help people learn and live the deep spirituality of the Fatima call.

This Army has no boot camps; its only weapons are sacrifice and prayer. The apostolate of Fatima is devoted to guiding people to become prayer warriors for the conversion of sinners and the salvation of souls.

We invite you to consider joining the Blue Army prayer cell at St. John's. We meet Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the chapel beginning November 8th. For more information, please contact Dorothy at 303-485-6326.

The CATHOLIC FOUNDATION How Will You Pass On Your Catholic Legacy?
 Just as we plan to ensure of Northern Colorado financial health for our families, we must plan for the health of our “faith families.”
 What a wonderful way to steward your finances and pass along your faith and love for your parish. Your planned gift to St. John the Baptist Parish Fund - Longmont held at The Catholic Foundation will provide financial support for the many generations to come. Our faith is a treasure; pass it on! For a free consultation about the advantages of making a planned gift to The Catholic Foundation for the benefit of your parish or favorite Catholic organization, please contact Jean Finegan, at The Foundation, at 303-867-0613 or visit www.TheCatholicFoundation.com.
