Gospel Meditation

"When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned ... to their own town of Nazareth." Mary and Joseph were faithful Jews who followed the norms of their religion. Today's gospel describes the event we call "The Presentation." Jesus' parents, like every Jewish family, presented their infant son to the Lord in a formal ceremony at the temple in Jerusalem. Having done what their religious rites required (and having heard the prophetic words of Simeon and Anna), Mary and Joseph returned home. It was back in their native region of Galilee, amidst the daily routine of domestic life, that Jesus "grew and became strong, filled with wisdom."

As Christians, we too consecrate our children to the Lord when we have them baptized in the Church. Seeing our children receive this sacrament of initiation is always a moment of great joy and hope as we anticipate the life that lies ahead for them, both on earth and in eternity. But the baptism of a baby is only the beginning of this journey towards heaven. In truth, the little daily details, the simple living of family life in our own home paves the way for our children to reach their eternal home.

And so it was with the Holy Family. Jesus' childhood, His formation, and development took place not primarily amidst the public drama of the temple, but in the quiet privacy of his home. How important this home was, where His parents raised him in their faith and helped Him live in such a way that "the favor of God was upon Him." May we too, in our homes and our families, remember that although our mission may be lived out in very small moments, taken together they have an eternal significance.

Why Do We Do That?

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with Him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

Hope Springs Eternal

Every new year brings new hope. Thankfully, hope springs eternal in mankind and we look forward to bettering our situations and improving our relationship with God and with each other. Sometimes we aren't able to keep our resolutions for more than a couple of weeks, but having the yearning to become better people is proof that we DO have the desire to become more Christ-like. If at first you don't succeed, don't be discouraged. No matter what, keep striving to overcome your shortcomings.

New Year's Resolutions

Need a resolution for the coming year? Here are some to consider:

1. Name your guardian angel and speak to him/her daily.
2. Pray the rosary every day and offer each decade for a different intention.
3. Fast on Fridays from meat - like in the "olden" days.
4. Consecrate yourself to the Blessed Mother and learn at least one new prayer to Mary.
5. Learn and then practice the Corporal and Spiritual works of Mercy.
6. Find a patron saint to be your companion and celebrate his/her feast day.

"My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following Your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please You does in fact please You. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this You will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it. Therefore I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for You are ever with me, and You will never leave me to face my perils alone."

Meditación Evangélica

31 de diciembre de 2017 La Sagrada Familia

Si preguntáramos a la gente en que se distingue la Navidad de otros días de fiesta de seguro su respuesta es que es día para la familia. Y es verdad, son días para ser vividos y disfrutar del calor familiar. Estas fechas son muy tradicionales a pesar del bombardeo de la publicidad que aprovecha estos elementos familiares para vender objetos que no se necesitan. Hoy la liturgia nos dirige la mirada hacia la familia de Jesús, a María y a José. Ellos vivieron durante treinta años en Nazaret, desde ahí es nuestra alianza a la fidelidad a la familia y a la humanidad entera. Si atendemos a las lecturas veremos que Jesucristo vivió 30 años en familia y 3 predicando el Reino de Dios para salvarnos. ¿Cómo santificas tú familia? ¿Cuánto tiempo dedicas al servicio del Reino de Dios?

Cualquiera que sea la respuesta, se llegará a la conclusión que la familia nace de la Encarnación y que Dios es nuestro Padre, y Cristo es el hermano que nos lleva a todos los demás. El Papa Francisco tiene mucha esperanza en la familia, él cree firmemente que la familia unida puede llegar a ser el motor de amor que mueva al mundo a la justicia y al amor. Él dice: “Cuando nos mostramos atentos a nuestras familias y a sus necesidades, cuando comprendemos sus dificultades y sus esperanzas... Vuestro compromiso en apoyo de las familias no ayuda sólo a la Iglesia, sino también a la Sociedad” (Discurso dirigido a los obispos de Sri Lanka, el 5 de mayo del 2014). ¿Cuál es tu opinión al respecto? ¿Qué piensas de lo que el Papa Francisco dice?

Live the Liturgy

Families face many challenges. All of the demands of work, school, and society can easily put a strain on even the best intentioned of families. Hurt, anger, and bitterness can grow in our families especially when conflicts are not properly resolved or relationships nurtured. Human beings require time, patience, love, and nurturing. We need to take time to celebrate the gift of family and not allow other demands to rob us of the time we need to spend together. Life is short. The Holy Family stands before us today showing us that love, commitment, and perseverance can see us through any difficulty or challenge life can bring. May we learn from their example!

Family isn't always blood. It's the people in your life who want you in theirs; the ones who accept you for who you are. The ones who would do anything to see you smile & who LOVE YOU no matter what.
