Why Do We Do That? Catholic Traditions Explained

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6th. In the United States, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6th. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting Him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From His very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible Tuesday Morning Bible Study

If you would like to have a deeper relationship with God and a better understanding of your faith, then join us for Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. You will not only benefit personally from being part of this study, you will also help to bring about a profound renewal in our parish as we grow closer to Christ. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you uncover meanings with a clever narrative approach and ingenious color-coded Bible timeline. Our first study session will begin on Tuesday, January 9th in Benedict Hall from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. For more information, please contact Pauline at 303-651-0109, or Betty at 303-772-0620.

From The Power of Silence:

“In a time when technology penetrates our lives in so many ways and materialism exerts such a powerful influence over us, Cardinal Robert Sarah presents a bold book about the strength of silence. The modern world generates so much noise, he says, that seeking moments of silence has become both harder and more necessary than ever before.”

Vivir La Liturgia

Jesús vino para todos. Nadie tiene una llamada exclusiva para Cristo y su nacimiento no solamente trasciende el tiempo y el espacio, sino también las fronteras de la tierra. Cada ser humano es un hijo de Dios. Los judíos y los gentiles al igual que todos los coherederos, compañeros y miembros del mismo cuerpo. Esta percepción o epifanía es lo que celebramos hoy. También expresa nuestra esperanza en que un día en todas las naciones de la tierra se reconozca y adore a Jesucristo. El mensaje de Jesús de paz, justicia, reconciliación y amor es para que todos lo oigan y lo comprendan.

Altar Server Training

If your son is in grades 4 or above, please encourage him to become an altar server. We will hold trainings on the following Saturdays from 3:30 to 4:40 p.m.: January 13th, March 10th, and May 12th.

For more information, please contact Jim Greule at jgreule@yahoo.com.

Live the Liturgy

Jesus came for everyone. No one has an exclusive claim on Christ and His birth not only transcends time and space but earthly boundaries as well. Every human being is a child of God. Jews and Gentiles alike are all coheirs, partners, and members of the same body. This insight or epiphany is what we celebrate today. It also expresses our hope that one day every nation on earth will recognize and adore Jesus Christ. Jesus' message of peace, justice, Reconciliation, and love are meant for everyone to hear and understand.

Advertise in our Bulletin!

Nik Alexander, our representative with Liturgical Publications, is working on securing advertisers for our bulletin. We would like to thank all of the advertisers who have renewed their ads for the upcoming year. Thank you also to all of the new advertisers who have generously committed to the bulletin for next year. If you would be interested in sponsoring an ad for your business or on behalf of your favorite charity/organization there is still time. Please contact Nik Alexander at 303-406-8542.

As a reminder, we ask that our parishioners utilize these wonderful advertisers whenever possible. Please use the bulletin as a resource whenever you are in need of products or services. Please let them know we truly appreciate their loyal support of our bulletin. It is their generosity that provides the bulletin at no cost to our parish.

M.U.M.S.

Calling all moms! We would like to invite you to join us. M.U.M.S. is a way to meet new friends and grow in our Catholic spirituality together. Our next meeting will be an Open House, so come check us out! We will meet in Benedict Hall on Thursday, January 18th at 9:00 a.m. We will have snacks and coffee, as well as a white elephant gift exchange and Catholic trivia game. New members are always welcome and babysitting is available. Please contact Sarah at stjohnsmums@gmail.com for more information.

Gospel Meditation

“Then they opened their treasures and offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” What a wonderful example the Magi give us in their visit to the infant Jesus! First of all, they demonstrate profound faith in God’s word, spoken through the prophet Micah: “And you, Bethlehem, from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel” (cf. 5:2). Embarking on a long and difficult journey, they trust that they will find this newborn king of the Jews in Bethlehem as the prophecy announced.

On their arrival at the home of the Holy Family, the Magi also give us an example of profound humility. These important men, to whom kings look for guidance and advice, do not hesitate to bow down, to “prostrate themselves” and give homage to a tiny babe. Putting their own position out of their minds, they reverently worship the infant Lord even as He sits on the lap of his mother. The generosity of these three “kings” is also evident as they open their treasure boxes and give to the poor child the richest of gifts. Traditionally, we understand the gold to symbolize the earthly kingship of Christ, the frankincense to represent His divinity, and the myrrh to stand as a symbol of the anointing He will receive upon His death.

Finally, the wisdom of these men is evident in their decision to return to their country “by another way.” Understanding the threat that King Herod posed to Jesus, they followed a plan that would help keep the divine child safe even though it meant inconvenience to themselves.

Faith, humility, generosity, and wisdom. These gifts are the real legacy of the Three Kings. Today, let us ask God for the blessing of having these gifts in our lives.

Liturgical Colors

As we continue on into the new Liturgical year, we are reminded that color plays an important role in our Catholic worship. The colors of a priest's vestments help us know that certain celebrations are at hand. The colors used have specific meaning as the faithful move through the liturgical year (which begins with Advent) or honor a special occasion or sacrament. Liturgical colors are used on sacred vestments, but they also can be used on banners, altar frontals, the ambo, and sometimes the veil over the chalice. Liturgies celebrated during the different seasons of the liturgical year have distinctive music and specific readings, prayers, and rituals. All of these elements work together to reflect the spirit of the particular season.

When we understand the colors of the year, we can also learn something about Church history. The first person to systematize the Roman Catholic color scheme was Pope Innocent III, pontiff from 1198 to 1216, who originally named four liturgical colors: white, red, black, and green. The current six liturgical colors, which include rose and violet/purple, were codified in 1570 with the promulgation of the Roman Missal after the Council of Trent. Dioceses in Spain and Mexico, and other nations of Spanish heritage, have been given permission to use the color blue for Marian feasts, including the feast of the Immaculate Conception. Blue also is granted to some Marian shrines.

Father Daniel and our altar servers (pictured above) demonstrated the colors of the chasubles during a 10:30 a.m. Mass last month. A chasuble is a sleeveless outer vestment worn by a Catholic priest when celebrating Mass, typically ornate and having a simple hole for the head. Our good news is that parishioners are volunteering to sponsor new vestments to build a collection of dignified vestments for the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy. Slowly the liturgical colors will be amplified.

Purple or violet: Used during Advent and Lent, these colors symbolize penance, preparation, sacrifice.

White and gold: Most appropriate use is for Christmas and Easter to symbolizes purity, joy, light, and glory. White or gold may also be used for Holy Thursday; the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity; the feasts of Our Lord (excluding those relating to His passion), the Virgin Mary, the angels and the saints who are not martyrs; and the feasts of All Saints, St. John the Baptist, St. John the Evangelist, the Chair of St. Peter, and the Conversion of St. Paul. White is used at nuptial Masses and baptisms, and may be used at funerals.

Green: The color of vestments used during ordinary time, which begins next Sunday. Green symbolizes hope, life, and anticipation. Ordinary time is a season focused on the Lord's three-year public ministry, His teachings and miracles, and is a reminder that the mission of the church is to share the hope and life of Christ with the world.

Rose: An optional color on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, rose may be worn as a sign of anticipated joy.

Red: For on feasts of the Passion of Jesus and for the Holy Spirit, representing red tongues of fire, in addition to being worn for the feasts of martyred saints, who shed their red blood for Christ.

Black: Symbolizes death and mourning. It may be used at funeral Masses, the feast of All Souls, or the anniversary of the death of a loved one. Following Vatican II, white is the preferred color since it reminds us of the Resurrection and our baptism.

Questions of the Week

Matthew 2:1-12 - How does the visit of the Magi fulfill the prophecies of Isaiah heard in the first reading?

Isaiah 60:1-6 - The prophet Isaiah foresaw a day when all nations would proclaim the praises of the Lord through the people of Israel. How did Isaiah envision this happening?

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6 - Paul spoke to the Ephesians about God's salvation now offered to all people through Jesus Christ. Why do you think some people find this idea threatening?
